

Stephen Drew

In October 2019, Archon Stephen Drew of Grand Rapids's Beta Omicron Boulé was presented with the University of Michigan Black Alumni Making a Difference Award in Law, given to alumni who have made significant contributions to their respective professions, at the Trotter Multicultural Center. Also in October, Archon Drew and Archousa Clarice Smith Drew were presented with the 2019 NAACP Greater Grand Rapids chapter's Hazel R. Lewis Presidential Award, given during the chapter's centennial 53rd Annual Freedom Fund Gala.

